Navy Trainer Cracks Into Oakland Bridge

By JACK SCHREIBMAN
Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Two men in a Navy jet trainer, hurtling through thick fog, crashed in flames into the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, scorching girders and tearing crosspieces Sunday.

Shattered remains of the T33, which had taken off from nearby Alameda Naval Air Station, continued past the five-lane westbound upper bridge roadway and about 180 feet down to the water. Engineers said a damaged bridge girder would have to be replaced.

Coast Guard boats and navy divers operating from a barge searched for the two fliers in 50 feet of water. The search, suspended because of darkness, resumes today.

The Navy identified the two men as Lt. Anthony V. Miller, 38, of Palm Desert, Calif., and Lt. Bruce C. Turnbull, 34, of Los Angeles. Both were members of Reserve Attack Squadron 773 stationed at Los Alamitos Naval Air Station in Southern California. The Navy said they were on a routine weekend training mission.

Seconds before the crash, truck driver Ronald Terry of El Sobrante was heading toward San Francisco with 8,050 gallons of jet fuel in a tank truck.

"...I hear this jet coming," he said. "I look up and I see a big streak. There were flames all over the place. The stuff was raining down on me, I thought my truck blew up."

There were no reports of any injuries on the bridge. Bits of wreckage slightly damaged Terry's truck.

The two fliers crashed into the cantilever section about two miles from the Oakland end. Girders were scorched over a 20-foot area. One was badly dented. Steel crosspieces were torn from their rivets, and an access ladder was wrenched loose.

peace in Vietnam. He said he had carried the proposal to Kosygin when he visited Moscow Jan. 22-24.

Johnson in a speech in San Antonio, Tex., last September promised an end to the bombing of North Vietnam when there is assurance from the Communist side that this will lead to prompt, productive peace talks. North Vietnamese Foreign Minister Nguyen Duy Trinh said last week the talks could begin as soon as the bombing stopped.

Wilson was interviewed on the CBS television-radio program "Face the Nation."

British Conservative party leader Edward Heath accused Wilson on his return to London Sunday of "lecturing" Johnson instead of supporting the President when, in a speech at the White House Friday night, he advised the President to ignore "impatient and exasperated demands" for intensification of the fighting. But the New York Times said it was thought Wilson "spoke with the President's advance knowledge and approval. In other words, Mr. Johnson used his visitor to strengthen his own hand against advocates of escalation."

Legislative Wars Likely to Pick Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Senate Labor Committee gave a "do pass" recommendation today to bills that would establish a $1-an-hour minimum wage beginning next Jan. 1.

Under the two bills, the minimum wage would increase 10 cents in 1970 and 1971.

The major difference between the two Senate measures is that one would assess a fine of not to exceed $100 for noncompliance and the other would assess a penalty of $1,000 for noncompliance.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The special session of the General Assembly waded through a few minor skirmishes last week but the wars are expected to begin today as the group enters its second week with the controversial items still to be considered.

Proposals dealing with constitutional revision, prison reform, the residency requirements for State Police Director and a state minimum wage are expected to cause the greatest debate.

The need for constitutional revision may not be questioned but action may bog down over the mechanics for setting up a constitutional convention.

The Senate passed a bill Friday allowing the electorate to vote on the need for a constitutional convention.

The apportionment of delegates may be one of the major obstacles, although Sen. Robert Harvey of Swift says there may be a compromise on selecting 100 delegates to the convention.

State Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock says he plans to bring the Senate's version of the Constitutional Revision Study Committee's bill to a vote today and Woodruff County Rep. Jack Oakes says he also expects a vote today on the House's version of the same measure.

Three bills relating to prison reform were introduced in both the House and Senate last week and will probably be acted on by the middle of the week. The most important of the three calls for the establishment of a state Department of Corrections to run the Penitentiary and a separate Board of Pardons and Paroles.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller wants the so-called Lynn Davis bill passed so he can reappoint Davis as State Police Director.

Rockefeller appointed Davis last summer but the state Supreme Court ruled in December that Davis did not meet the 10-year residency requirement.

Rockefeller has said that he will not approve the bill in an amended form.

Rep. Marlon Crank of Foreman says the 97 Democrats in the House will caucus this morning to discuss the Davis bill.

METALLURGICAL and magnetic research expert Dr. Thomas O. Paine has been named by President Johnson as deputy administrator of National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Paine, 46, of Santa Barbara, Calif., succeeds Dr. Robert C. Seamans.

church-oriented than the National Service Board. It maintains a nationwide network of lay counselors, cooperating lawyers and a mailing list of 19,000 from whom it solicits funds. It was founded in 1948 by pacifist and religious groups.

The National Service Board, founded in 1940, is financed about half by churches and half by individuals. It deals with many appeals from Mennonites and Brethren. Five years ago, it was spending about $23,000 annually; now it has a $53,000 budget for its staff of six.

Both organizations insist they don't tell a man what to say to his draft board, but only advise him of legal rights and consequences, and help him clarify his own thinking.

Tatum and Sherk both insisted that they don't run any underground railways to Canada for men fleeing the draft. Each said he'd rather see such men stay in the United States.

"But sometimes in my more imaginative moments," said Tatum, "I wonder what would happen if all 5,000 (the number of draft-avoiders he estimates are in Canada) came marching back across the border and said: 'Here we are, what are you going to do?'"

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — It is difficult to find an entertainment form that holds interest better and is as well adapted to television's needs as a courtroom drama. And ABC's two-hour adaptation of Henry Denker's Broadway play "A Case of Libel" on Sunday night was a dandy example.

In addition to a tight script that built to a tense climax, there were some outstanding performances, particularly by Van Heflin in the role of plaintiff's attorney which he played in the 1963 stage production.

The drama, based on "My Life in Court," the memoirs of attorney Louis Nizer, was the story of a libel suit brought by a magazine writer and reporter called Dennis Corcoran, against a nationally published columnist and television commentator named Boyce Bendix.

Bendix, in print and on the air, had attacked Corcoran's courage and morals, apparently in reprisal for Corcoran's favorable review of a book that had been highly critical of the columnist.

Lloyd Bridges played Corcoran as an angry, determined man anxious to clear his name. Jose Ferrer, as Bendix, gave the character arrogance, incredible righteousness and just a suggestion of eccentricity that made the explosion toward the end logical.

Angie Dickinson, as Corcoran's wife, had little to do except look worried and act affectionate.

The best casting was the choice of the two lawyers. Heflin's opponent was E. G. Marshall, a veteran of the theatrical courtroom. But in his style, attitude—and mustache—he was completely different in the unsympathetic role from the role he played for years in "The De-

IS HANGOVER PSYCHOSOMATIC?

Dear Helen: I'm not given to hangovers. Yet every New Year's morning I wake up sick. Do you suppose it's psychosomatic? Do I resent another year passing and my unconscious knocks me out? I am a very moderate drinker. — LUTHER

Dear Luther: Don't blame a hangover on a hang-up. You're lenders."

It was a satisfying two hours, and made good television sense because it had never been made into a motion picture, hence was fresh to most viewers.

NBC, unfortunately, picked the first hour of the drama as the time in which to show an off-beat and amusing special, "The Fabulous Funnies." With Carl Reiner as guide, viewers were able to sample comic strips that ranged from the old, such as "The Captain and the Kids" to the new, such as "B.C." and "Peanuts."

It was a gay potpourri of animation, interviews with cartoonists, trick photography and songs. ABC continued its excellent coverage of the Winter Olympics over the weekend. And while the skiing was thrilling and breathtaking, the most exciting moments came Saturday afternoon when American Peggy Fleming gracefully looped and spun her way to a Gold Medal in the skating competition.

knocked unconscious by the "acceptance syndrome"—of every mixed drink that is offered. They come twice as fast and wild on New Year's, and a light drinker often gets carried away—literally.—H.

Dear Helen: I've got several Servicemen penpals, thanks to Viet Nam Mail Call. A couple of them have mentioned the Vietnamese refugees, especially children, who need so much. Do you know of any way I could send gifts to them, and what would be appreciated? —HOPEFUL

Dear Hopeful: The 520th Transportation Battalion has "adopted" a nearby Vietnamese refugee camp, known as Camp Columbus. They will appreciate any kind of lightweight children's clothing, such as boxer shorts, T-shirts, dresses, canvas shoes, underwear, shirts, tooth paste, brushes, soap, thongs (rubber shower shoes), notebook paper, pencils, crayons, chalk, small chalk boards or toys. Just about any item easily mailed can be used. Packages under five pounds will be sent from the United States, airmail, at surface rates. Postage and transportation is put to best use by avoiding heavy or worn articles.

Yerger to Play Stamps Tonight

By LINDA WILLIAMS
Yerger Sports Writer

The Tigers will try to cage Stamps here tonight. The Tigers truly need this win, because of the defeats they have had in the past.

This will be a busy week for the Tigers. They will try to start it off with a win against Stamps. Coach says "This game should be in the bag, but we won't know until tonight."

The Junior boys also have a week in store for them. So you see they must have ball playing on their minds. Besides this, they must play ball. Coach Straughter wasn't with the boys during last week's game against Ashdown, because of illness. I'm sure he will be up and with them tonight against Stamps.

Thinking of hard ball playing, the term free throw, comes to mind meaning as follows: an unhindered shot at the basket awarded to a fouled player. He shoots from behind the foul line. A free throw counts 1 point. Come time: 6:30 p.m. Place: Jones Field House. Do your share of supporting fans.

Canadians All Score in Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Who do you watch when the Montreal Canadiens have the puck? That's what the Chicago Black Hawks were trying to figure out today.

Six different Canadiens scored Sunday night as they beat the Hawks 6-0 and boosted their lead in the National Hockey League's East Division to five points over second-place Boston.

On Saturday night, five different players accounted for six goals as the Canadiens outlasted Chicago 6-4.

In other games Sunday, Fred Stanfield's goal with 53 seconds left gave Boston a 3-3 tie with St. Louis. New York tied Detroit 3-3. Philadelphia edged Minnesota 3-2 and Oakland scored four times in the third period to nip Toronto 4-3.

Pittsburgh tied New York 2-2. Boston tied Detroit 1-1. Philadelphia topped St. Louis 2-1 and Minnesota beat Oakland 5-2 in other Saturday games.

Montreal, which has lost only once its last 20 games, scored twice in each period Sunday as goalie Rogation Vachon recorded his third shutout of the season.

The Canadian scorers were Jacques Lemaire, Bob Rousseau, Jean Beliveau, Claude Provost, Yvan Cournoyer and Henri Richard, who was playing his first game since he returned last Friday after threatening to retire.

St. Louis opened up a 2-0 lead on goals by Ron Schock and Frank St. Marselle before Boston tied it on a 60-foot screen shot by Ted Green and a goal by Johnny Bucyk in the third period.

Then St. Louis took the lead on Larry Keenan's goal. But just 20 seconds later Stanfield poked in a rebound for the tie.

Jean Ratelle's second goal tied it for the New York early in the final period. The Rangers had taken a 1-0 lead on Ratelle's goal in the first period before Detroit went ahead 3-1 on a goal by Alex Delvecchio and a pair by Norm Ullman. Donnie Marshall got New York's second goal.

Lincoln Shoots Down the Bobcats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

For some reason the Hope Bobcats have never played well against the Camden Lincoln Wildcats. Last Saturday night was no exception, as the red-hot Wildcats outshot the Bobcats 86-60. Hope had entered the game with good spirit and enthusiasm, but the remarkable shooting of Lincoln's Ray Bush and the strong rebounding edge made the difference for Lincoln. In the first half alone, Bush connected on 12 of 13 shots from the field, or an amazing 92.3 per cent.

The defeat set the Bobcats to 3-7 in 4-AA, and Lincoln leveled their card to 5-5 in conference play.

As Ray Bush poured in 12 points, the Wildcats' fast break sent the visitors into a 21-14 lead over the Bobcats at the quarter. The second segment was an exact duplication of the first by score, even with the phenomenal Bush popping 12 more points, and Lincoln led 42-28 over the Bobcats at halftime.

In the third quarter the deficit ranged from 12 to 18, with almost all the scoring coming in spurts. Hope got the last one, and cut it to 60-45 at the end of three. The Bobcats stayed around for a while longer, until an eleven point spurge midway in the last period put it out of reach at 73-47 with 3:58 left. From there on both squads substituted rather freely to the end.

Dwight Calloway swished 20 points to lead the Bobcats, and Larry East maintained a warm hand by adding 15. Guard Danny Reyenga had a good night with 8. Ricky Putman and Terry Turner both had 4, and John Henley got 3. Richard Saltee, Montie Garner, and Donnie Middlebrooks all had 2 points. Bush rimmed 32, Donnie Davidson had 16, and Calvin Carroll added 15.

In the opener the Hope Bobkittens fought hard before falling to the Lincoln Juniors 50-29. A blow to hopes of winning and also a blow to chances in the district tournament struck the Kittens when center Lynn Norton injured his ankle just before the end of the quarter and was helped from the floor.

Norton at the time was having one of his best nights, with six points and a bunch of rebounds, and his loss hurt. The team fought hard without him but just didn't have the depth of Lincoln.

Bill Lee led the Bobkittens with eight points, and Parker Powell had seven. Then came Norton with six, and Ronnie Massanelli and Scott Gunter netted three apiece. Charles Ratelle also had two points. Floyd Jackson, a guard with a million moves and with great potential for the future, fired in 20 points to lead the winners.

This weekend the Bobcats hit the road with the "B" Lizards for ball games at Arkadelphia on Friday at Fairview on Saturday nights. The Bobkittens begin play in the 4-AA Junior Boys Championships tonight, playing Smackover in the first round. The tourney is being held in Smackover, and the Bobkittens' game begins at 9:30 p.m.

Bucs Drop Rockets in ABA League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Charly begins at home. That's the motto of the New Orleans Bucs of the American Basketball Association.

The Bucs, Western Division leaders, opened up a four-game spread over second-place Denver Sunday, dropping the Rockets 98-90 at New Orleans.

Jackie Moreland led the Bucs with 26 points, but it was superior foul shooting at the charity stripe which provided the difference.

New Orleans, outshot 36-29 in the field, hit on 39 of 49 free throws while Denver had a mere 17 of 29.

In other ABA games Sunday, Minnesota crept to within one game of Eastern Division leader Pittsburgh with a 121-119 overtime victory at Dallas. Kentucky took Indiana 103-90 at home and Houston thrashed Oakland 127-117 on the West Coast.

In the National Basketball Association, Philadelphia beat St. Louis 117-93. Los Angeles demolished Boston, 141-104. Seattle trimmed San Francisco 146-118 and Baltimore topped San Diego, 136-116.

In the ABA Saturday, Pittsburgh tripped Anaheim 120-112. New Orleans walloped Minnesota 126-100 and New Jersey defeated Indiana 124-112.

Vermont was not included among the 13 original colonies.

Henderson Tops State in AIC Play

Henderson's Reddies took a major step forward Saturday night in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference while Southern State's Muleriders did an about-face.

The Reddies downed State College 102-82 while SSC dropped a 66-65 decision to Ouachita.

Henderson is now 11-3 and has a one-game lead on Arkansas College with four games to play. The Muleriders' loss dropped them two full games back of Henderson.

The Reddies expanded an eight-point halftime lead into a 20-point bulge about midway through the second half in their victory over State College.

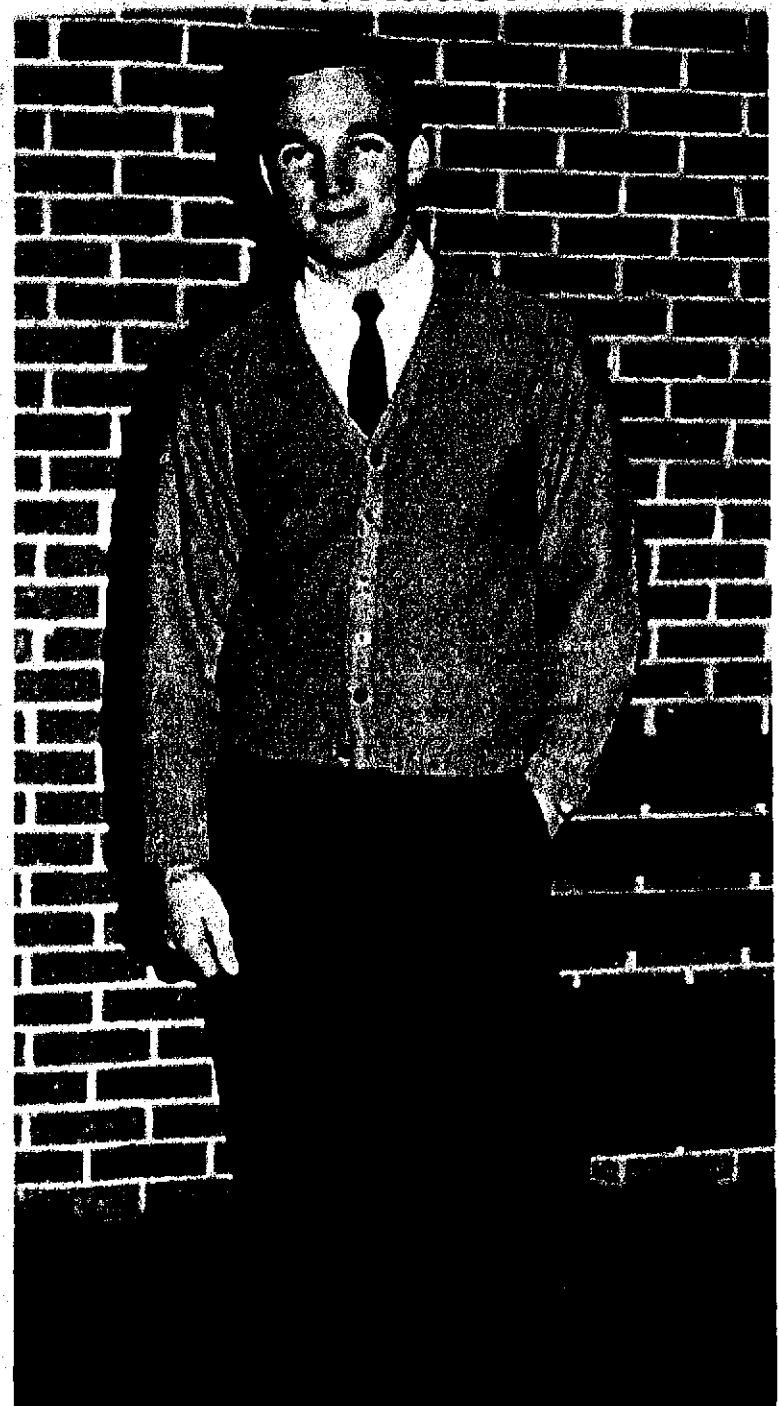

Henderson hit 53 per cent from the field while SCA connected on 33 per cent of its shots. State College's Ray Malcom had 28 points while Lou Wood scored 27 for the Reddies.

Ouachita's Danny Sheets gunned in a 25-footer in the final eight seconds to supply the Tigers' margin of victory. The Muleriders led 40-34 at the half. Sheets led OBU with 18 points and Robert Cornelius added 16. Billy Barnes hit 20 and Donnie Denton 17 for the Muleriders.

Henderson hosts Harding, which is in a tie for fourth with improving Arkansas Tech, Tuesday night and then plays Tech at Russellville Friday.

Southern State and Arkansas College meet Saturday night at Batesville in a game which could go a long way toward deciding second place in the conference.

New Coach Added to Staff

JIM JORDAN

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

The newest addition to the Hope High School coaching staff is Jim Jordan, who assumed duties here at semester.

Jordan is a graduate of Ouachita Baptist University, where he majored in Social Science and also Physical Education. Playing for the football Tigers, he made the ALL-AIC team and was selected with honorable mention to the NAIA All-American team.

As quarterback, he set three new AIC standards in total offense, passing yardage, and passes completed. Coach Jordan also made All-AIC in baseball, and was a draftee of the San Francisco Giants.

In credit to his ability, Jim Jordan was selected the Most Outstanding Athlete at Ouachita for the school year of 1966-67, and he was listed among the Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

He graduated from Camden High School after making All-District 2 years and All-State in football and All-District during his senior year in basketball.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jordan of Camden, Jim and his wife, Janis, are now residing in Hope. Coach Jordan's duties at the high school include teaching economics and physical education, and he also is helping with the weight-lifting and golf programs.

Uniforms Are Very Colorful

GRENOBLE, France (AP)—The French have a word for the Canadian uniforms for members of the Winter Olympic team, with Hudson Bay jackets ringed in green, yellow, red and black.

The French call them "Tranches Napolitaines" after a multi-colored brick ice cream.

The belladonna or deadly nightshade plant belongs to the potato family.

Will Run as Long as He Can Beat Kids

"I'll keep running as long as I can beat the kids," 30-year-old George Young said recently.

These were the kids Young beat Saturday when he ran two miles in 8:31.8 in an indoor track meet in Los Angeles.

Ron Clarke, the redoubtable Australian who holds a fistful of world distance-running records, and was a draftee of the San Francisco Giants.

Southern State and Arkansas College meet Saturday night at Batesville in a game which could go a long way toward deciding second place in the conference.

Clarke, who was ahead until Young took the lead, finished in fourth place at 8:35.0 while Pearce, who set some of the early pace, faded badly, finishing eighth in the nine-man field at 8:50.4.

Elsewhere, Jim Ryun didn't quite succeed in his ambition of running two "quality" miles on consecutive nights, turning in a time of 4:03.4 in the Michigan State Relays in East Lansing Saturday.

Not that there's anything wrong with that time, but the night before in New York, the world record holder turned in the third fastest mile ever run on the boards, 3:57.5.

Kentucky Could Take Big Step

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Kentucky gets a chance tonight to take a big step toward registering another impressive number on the record of its famed basketball coach, Adolph Rupp.

The number would be 23 and it would signify the number of Southeastern Conference championships coached by Rupp, whose teams have won a record 780 games and an unprecedented four national titles.

Rupp's Wildcats, ranked eighth in The Associated Press major college poll, get their chance to move into first place in the SEC by one-half game over fifth-ranked Tennessee when they play the Volunteers tonight at Lexington, Ky.

Kentucky was helped in its bid to overtake Tennessee last Saturday when the Volunteers were upset 61-43 by Georgia and third-place Florida was surprised by Louisiana State 93-92 in overtime while the Wildcats were beating Mississippi State 92-84.

The losses gave Tennessee a 9-2 conference record and Florida a 10-4 mark. Kentucky is 9-3. No. 10 New Mexico State was beaten 81-75 by Chicago Loyola, but all of the other Top Ten teams won Saturday.

Mike Casey threw in 24 points to lead Kentucky from behind for its victory at Starkville, Miss.

Bob Lienhard led Georgia's upset of Tennessee at Athens, Ga., scoring 13 points to give the Bulldogs a six-point halftime lead, which they steadily increased in the second half.

Florida got 38 points from Neal Walk at Baton Rouge, La., but couldn't handle LSU's 5-foot-8 Rich Lupecho and Pete Maravich, the national scoring leader. Lupecho played a great defensive game and got the winning point on a foul shot with 15 seconds left. Maravich poured in 47 points.

Top-ranked Houston and No. 2 UCLA had easy times, Houston trouncing Centenary 107-56 at Shreveport, La., as Elvin Hayes scored 50 points and grabbed 37 rebounds and UCLA thrashing Oregon 104-53 at Eugene, Ore.

Larry Miller scored 32 points to pace No. 3 North Carolina over Virginia Tech 80-70 at Blacksburg, Va., for the Tar Heels' 15th straight victory, unbeaten St. Bonaventure, No. 4, won its 17th by pasting Providence 70-56 at Olean, N.Y.

In other games involving the Top Ten, sixth-ranked New Mexico edged Texas-El Paso 64-58 at Albuquerque, N.M.; No. 7 Columbia overwhelmed Harvard 103-70 at Cambridge, Mass., and No. 9 Vanderbilt whipped Mississippi 90-72.

McCullough of Southern California won the 60-yard high hurdles, with a speedy 6.9, beating out a class field that included Willie Davenport and Leon Coleman. Lee Evans of San Jose State won the 440 in 47.8.

Four high jumpers cleared seven feet, with Valentin Gavrilov of Russia winning at 7-2. Ed Caruthers of the Pacific Coast Club cleared the same height while Otis Burrell of the Southern California Striders and Dick Fosbury of Oregon State made 7 feet.

John Vaughn of UCLA became the third pole vaulter to clear 17 feet indoors, winning at 17-2. The first man to do it, world indoor record holder Bob Seagren of Southern California, finished second at 16-6 1/2.

Miss Fleming Wins Gold Medal for U.S.

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
GRENoble, France (AP) — Peggy Fleming's gold medal victory in the Winter Olympic Games is a triumph for the ballet school of figure skating over the more dramatic ice show style, says two-time Olympic champion Dick Button.

"Peggy can do things on the ice that no other skater can do, but hers is a graceful ballerina style," he added. Sunday, "She seems to just glide over the ice. She is a floating symphony. She does spins and jumps, but she hardly kicks up any ice at all."

"This is in contrast to the professional show skaters — and many amateurs — who think speed, flash and power are the ingredients of impressive figure skating."

This comment by the former world's champion, Olympic king in 1948 and 1952 who is here as a television commentator, was particularly significant since Miss Fleming apparently is headed for a pro career with the touring Ice Follies.

Will she be forced to change her style to fit the pro format, or will she create a new ice show trend?

Peggy continued to deny reports that she will give up her amateur status after next month's world championships at Geneva, Switzerland, for a $500,000 five-year contract with the pro troupe.

"My aim now is to win a third world's title," she said. "I haven't thought about turning pro."

Peggy's mother, Mrs. Doris Fleming, became piqued by constant queries about her daughter's pro plans. "Why must you keep pestering us about professional skating," she said. "Can't you let us remain happy as amateurs?"

Any suggestion that Peggy might be considering a pro career could have her disqualified from the world tournament.

However, it is an open secret that the Ice Follies, bidding against two other road shows, are prepared to pay half a million dollars for Peggy's name and abilities during the next five years.

Close friends say they are sure Miss Fleming will accept the attractive offer after the Geneva competition Feb. 27 through March 3. Under the proposed contract, she would perform only in the major cities and not make the full tour.

Peggy, a striking blue-eyed brunette, is not an electric skater. Her repertoire contains no daring triple jump as East Germany's Gabriele Seyfert, who finished second, nor does she skate with the verve and drive of European champion Hana Maskova of Czechoslovakia, the bronze medalist. Yet she can keep an audience entranced with her flowing grace and beauty of style.

She felt her free-skating performance Saturday night was below the exhibitions she put on at Philadelphia in the U.S. Nationals two weeks ago. Her coach, Carlo Fassi, agreed. "There were a couple of things she didn't do as well, but is immaterial," Fassi said. "She was under tremendous pressure. I think she was marvelous."

Weiskopf Is Winner at San Diego

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Tom Weiskopf is a professional golfer with a name as difficult to spell as to remember, but the likeable young fellow from Bedford, Ohio, is changing that.

Weiskopf, at 25 a pro for four years, captured the $150,000 Andy Williams-San Diego Open tournament Sunday, third richest in the nation this year, and equipped with a winning bankroll of $30,000, he headed for the $100,000 Phoenix Open.

It was Weiskopf's first victory on the tour and in it he shattered the opposition, including such giants as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Bill Casper.

One spectacular shot on the final hole Sunday at the par 36-36-72 Torrey pines Golf Course did it—one that broke a three-way deadlock and a probable

Most Host Is Winner of $118,700 Stake

Jockey Bill Harman worried about Rivet, didn't think about Damascus and beat them both aboard Most Host in the $118,700 Charles H. Strub Stakes at Santa Anita.

"The horse I was most worried about was Rivet because we were going for second money," Harman said Saturday after the 1 1/4-mile race restricted to 4-year-olds.

"We didn't think we had a chance to beat Damascus," Harman added.

But beat Damascus Most Host did, outdueling the 1987 Horse of the Year to score by a head in 2:04 over a slow track.

Rukon finished third, 11 lengths back, followed by Rivet, Proud Land and Nashua Pilot.

"We just got beat," Ron Turcotte said of his ride on Damascus, who carried high weight of 126 pounds compared to 114 for Most Host. Turcotte got the mount on Mrs. Edith W. Bancroft's champion in place of the injured Bill Shoemaker.

In picking up $73,700 to go with his previous total earnings of $66,170 Most Host, owned by Mrs. Frank C. Bishop, returned a winning mutual payoff of $26.40. The heavily favored Damascus earned $20,000 to increase his bankroll to $926,106.

The other star of Santa Anita's Saturday card, Australian champion Tobin Bronze, never got to the post for the $30,000-added, 1 1/4 mile San Marcos Handicap over the grass.

Trainer Charles Whittingham decided the turf, softened by two days of rain, wasn't suitable for Tobin Bronze and scratched him.

With the favorite out of the race, Biggs, $8.60, came from 10th place in the field of 11 to win by a nose over French Fox.

2 Arkansans Collect in Tournament

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — R. H. Sikes of Springdale, Ark., and Miller Barber of Texarkana, Ark., matched par Sunday and collected checks in the $150,000 Andy Williams-San Diego Open Golf Tournament.

Sikes' 72 gave him a 72-hole total of 282, which earned him $1,725. Barber, who had rounds of 70-71-72-72, won $669 for his 285 score. Sikes opened with rounds of 69-70-71.

sudden-death playoff. It was a 25-foot putt from off the edge of the green that snaked and curled its way into the hole for an eagle 3.

The eagle gave him a 4-under-par 68 for the day and a 15-under-par 273 for 72 holes.

Al Gelberger, playing in the same threesome, got an anticlimatic birdie 4 on the hole for 69 and second place at 274 and $18,000. Ray Floyd, who staged a great last-round rally, had a 67 and a 275 for $11,250.

Another young pro, Bob Lunn of Sacramento, Calif., got in fourth with a 70 and a total of 276 good for $7,500. Nicklaus was fifth at 277.

Weiskopf is a rangy young man, 6-foot-3, 170 pounds, broad-shouldered with a nose burned from the sun of Palm Springs and the wind of San Diego. A product of Ohio State University, he looks as if he should have caught passes for football Coach Woody Hayes—if Woody's team ever threw passes.

He was a forerunner of Nicklaus on the golf team at Ohio State. Tom went into the final round tied with Nicklaus and Gelberger. The smart fellows figured he'd never make it to the victory stand.

in a photo finish. The time was 2:04-2/5. In other races last Saturday, Clever Foot, looked good in outdistancing 12 other Derby-age colts in the $28,700, six-furlong Pimlico Stakes at Pimlico and Fill-To won the $32,550 Bougainvillea Turf Handicap over 1-3/16 miles on the grass at Hialeah.

New Cars Are Faster Than Ever Before

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — This year's new cars are faster than ever, as Cale Yarborough proved when he raised the Daytona 500 qualifying record by nine miles an hour to 189.222 Sunday.

He drove a Mercury Cyclone with improved aerodynamic lines that drivers and mechanics credit for much of the big jump in speeds to areas once thought impossible.

Three Mercurys and three Fords were among the seven fastest, but Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., put a 1968 Plymouth in the starting front row of the Feb. 25 main event at 189.055 m.p.h. almost as fast as Yarborough.

Yarborough gets his choice of inside or outside pole position for the $200,000 race and Petty takes the other spot. They also won pole positions in a pair of 125-milers on Feb. 23 which will determine other starting orders in the 500-mile feature.

Opening qualifying day brought a first payment of $5,000 to Yarborough and $1,000 to Petty. Lee Roy Yarborough of Columbia, S.C., collected $750 for third best 188.262 m.p.h. in a Mercury Cyclone.

A Little Late for Ceremonies

GRENoble, France (AP) — A resident of this Olympic city stopped at the tourist information office today to ask when the opening ceremony would take place — almost a week after the opening of the Olympic Games.

Mrs. Baber's 4th Grade of Brookwood School made Safety Posters and demonstrated them to the 5th and 6th Grades Thursday noon.

These students became more concerned with the safety portion of their health studies after one of their class members got his leg broken when he was struck by an automobile while crossing the highway to catch his bus. Further making them safety conscious was the accident Wednesday night when a local youth was killed in a car-bicycle accident.

Oswald: "Victor Mollo has included Bob Slavenburg of Rotterdam among his bridge immortals. As I remember, you and Dr. John Fisher were second to him and Kreyns in the 1966 World's Pair championship."

Jim: "We came mighty close and lost to a great pair. Bob surely belongs in any list of really great bridge players. Furthermore he is a delightful person."

Oswald: "Victor Mollo shows a rather silly hand as an example of Bob's daring in a team match in the 1948 European championships which marked his first international appearance. Slavenburg's spade overall was the sort of psychic I used to try when I was young. Sometimes they worked. Sometimes they carried me down to defeat. At least they created plenty of excitement."

Jim: "When North went back from two clubs to two spades, Bob realized that he was in real trouble. His partner was stubborn enough to go back to spades again and again. Bob decided to pass and hope for the best."

Oswald: "Actually he could not really be hurt at two spades. Down eight, nonvulnerable would be only 1,500 points, and East and West have a vulnerable grand slam at their disposal. At the other table Bob's partners stopped at six spades but made seven for a score 1,460, so that all he could have lost was 40 points."

Jim: "The result was far different. West opened the ace-king and queen of trumps. Then, for some reason best known to himself, West led a fourth trump. Bob won with dummy's eight spot and ran off seven club tricks to bring home his doubled two spade contract."

Oswald: "Quite a difference. The Slavenburg team played at spades in both directions and made a total of 23 tricks."

THE WELL CHILD® Nail-Biting Habit A Sign of Tension

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

A mother writes that her son bites his nails and the skin at the corners of his nails. This is one of several ways a child may use to ease his nervous tension. Usually, such a child needs to have his self-confidence strengthened. Nagging, scolding or calling his attention to this habit will have the opposite effect so the best policy is to praise his accomplishments and avoid pushing him beyond the capabilities of his present development.

Q—My daughter, 3, has ingrowing toenails. Will she outgrow this? Can anything be done to help her?

A—You can't start too soon to take corrective measures and hope that it is not too late for your daughter to outgrow this painful condition. Most ingrowing nails are caused by cutting them with rounded corners instead of letting the corners grow out and cutting them straight across. Equally important is to make sure that her shoes and socks are large enough and properly fitted. In a growing child this often means discarding shoes or socks before they are worn out. After bathing your daughter, place a small bit of cotton under both corners of the nails. This will prevent the nail from cutting into the skin, relieve pain and prevent infection.

Q—What would be the effects on a nursing child if the mother was taking ergot?

A—Ergot is one of the drugs that is secreted in the milk of a mother who is taking the drug. It should not be taken by a nursing mother because it could cause ergot poisoning in the child.

Q—Could frequent urination in a 5-year-old girl be caused by an allergy to some food if all the urine tests are negative?

A—This is most unlikely. Frequent urination in a child who has no kidney or bladder disease is more apt to be due to nervous excitement, chilling or drinking a large amount of fluid.

Q—My son had pylorospasm from two weeks till about 10 months of age. He was not operated on and didn't regain his birth weight till he was three months old. Could his son or daughter inherit this from him?

A—This congenital condition sometimes runs in families. It is more likely to occur in boys than in girls. When it occurs, it is usually in a first-born.

Fancy Trick in the Legislature; Martins Arrive

One of the fancy bills that always gives a legislature a touch of the razzle-dazzle frontier days came up suddenly last week in Arkansas' special session—and just as suddenly went down.

Apparently it was a sop thrown to the County Judges Association by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who admitted he sponsored it; but it was defeated just the same.

The measure proposed to divert 1 per cent of general revenue funds credited to the County Aid Fund to a lobby organization planned for the county governments. It got 50 votes, with 40 against—but passage required 51, a majority of the chamber membership. Accordingly Speaker Sterling R. Cockrill, Jr., required to act when his vote would be decisive, stepped in and saved the day with a staunch "No."

Lobbies to work for or against tax bills and other legislation are a fair and perpetual piece of the machinery of democracy. But proposing to finance a lobby with public tax money is a new and shameful twist.

How come we are bothered with such a farce? Usually it's a case of some sharp character in the background who wants something.

An Associated Press story in last Friday's Star let the cat out of the bag when it quoted an unnamed lawmaker as saying that if the bill had passed and if the new county lobby organization had become a reality then former Rep. Paul van Dalsem of Perryville was hoping to be the group's executive secretary.

I thought his defeat for reelection killed him. But guys like van Dalsem don't die—they just fade away behind the screen for lobbyists.

First arrivals of purple martins for the 1968 season in southwest Arkansas were reported this morning by two Hempstead county families.

One martin was sighted by Mrs. Lonnie Crow, a mile east of Hope on the Rosston highway, at 8 a.m. She didn't have her birdbox up as yet, and Mr. Martin circled aimlessly, finally lighting near the usual site. I assured Mrs. Crow this was no tragedy, for martins scout around a week or two, perhaps longer, before setting up housekeeping.

The other martin-sighting report came from Fred Collins, a mile south of Spring Hill, who had four arrivals at 9 a.m.

Martin arrivals on Feb. 12 are not unusual. The late Claude Agee of E. Second St., Hope, was a long-time martin buff, and reported one arrival as early as Feb. 9, as I recall. My own martin boxes invariably run late. The birds did not arrive until March 29 last year, and 1966 wasn't much better, March 15.

Nevertheless, today's report serves notice on martin-box owners that it is high time to take them down and clean out old sparrow or starling nests, so arriving martins can move in. Also, it is important to observe the martins' actions the first month or so after they arrive. If sparrows and starlings attempt to make new nests, take the boxes down and reclean them. The martins will resume nesting, as if expecting this kind of motel service.

Residency Requirement Is Lashed

PARACOULD, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has branded as "utterly fantastic" the residency requirement for State Police Director and the debate in the legislature over amending the requirement.

Rockefeller, in a speech here Saturday night, pointed out that the governor's residency requirement is only seven years, and defended a governor's right to choose the man he wants to head the department.

Rockefeller is attempting to amend the law which says a person must be an Arkansas resident 10 years prior to his appointment to be eligible to serve as police director,

Negroes Plan Boycott at Orangeburg

By DON MCKEE
Associated Press Writer
ORANGEBURG, S.C. (AP) — Negroes turned to a boycott of white businesses today as they pressed for civil rights gains and immediate removal of National Guard troops from this riot-torn city.

Also demanded was the "immediate suspension of the law enforcement officers responsible for the police brutality" in racial violence that resulted in three deaths Thursday night. The violence for four days last week, in which 50 persons also were injured, was sparked by attempts of Negro college students to integrate a bowling alley.

The Rev. L. D. Newman, state field director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said action was wanted "immediately with no nonsense."

More than 800 persons representing a cross section of Orangeburg's Negro community met in Trinity Methodist Church Sunday and overwhelmingly endorsed the boycott and other demands sent to the governor and the City Council.

They expressed concern for the course of race relations in the city and objected to the presence of more than 600 guardsmen.

In Columbia, Gov. Robert McNair's office said the guardsmen would remain as long as it is necessary for the protection of citizens. Dusk-to-dawn curfews imposed since Friday will continue until a state of emergency is over, the governor said.

Police officials denied the charges of brutality and reiterated that a crowd of Negro students was fired upon Thursday night only after sniper fire was aimed at the police. Inquests into the three deaths are planned but no dates have been set.

A statement adopted at the Sunday meeting called for the state to make restitution to families of the three dead and the 50 injured.

The list of objectives in the boycott includes desegregation of the bowling alley, the only one in the city.

A U.S. Justice Department suit filed Saturday demands desegregation of the All Star Triangle Bowl and an eating establishment in it.

Most of the objectives of the civil rights campaign and boycott were taken from several "declarations" approved last week by the student bodies of two predominantly Negro colleges in Orangeburg—South Carolina State College and Claflin College.

With these words bearded, tattered Clint Wescott, 51, who says he's been on the bum for 15 years, refused $19,219.

"Hand me a dollar," he said, "I'll take it—buy a little drink, a little smoke. But I don't want the nineteen thousand."

"I just don't want the money," he said.

The money belongs to Wescott, who sleeps in weeds in a vacant downtown lot and lives with his friends "One-eyed Jack," "Big Swede," and "The Missing Man."

His current assets are 44 cents, he says.

The money is from the foreclosure sale in 1961 of a gas station in Burnt Hills, N.Y., near Schenectady, that Wescott abandoned in 1953 when he headed west. The $15,124 sale price plus interest are in two bank accounts.

A law firm, appointed by the New York Supreme Court to handle the case, has searched for Wescott since 1961.

Two weeks ago, Wescott told newsmen of his friends and their home in an undeveloped area a few blocks from the county courthouse.

In Burnt Hills, attorney John

P. Brown read the story. Brown phoned the Los Angeles Times and told of the money owed Wescott.

Said Brown: "Finding Clinton is a great relief. The sooner I hand over the money to him, the better I will like it." He said Wescott had been a popular resident of the town and had built the station with his own hands.

"Then suddenly one day 15 years ago he said the hell with it and took off," said Brown.

Brown sent a letter to the newspaper carrying a separate note informing Wescott of his wealth. He ignored the tale of his fortune.

Draft Boards Taking a Hard Line Against Conscientious Groups

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Two burgeoning organizations are spending more than $200,000 a year to counsel conscientious objectors to military service, but Selective Service says there's been no Vietnam-period increase in the proportion of young men winning such exemptions.

Spokesmen for two counseling groups contend draft boards are taking an increasingly hard line in ruling on applications for conscientious objector deferments.

The Central Committee for Conscientious Objectors, headquartered in Philadelphia, helps, among others, "selective objectors," so called because they object to only one war—the one in Vietnam. The National Service Board for Religious Objectors, working a block from the White House, doesn't accept the selective principle.

J. Harold Sherer, executive secretary of the National Service Board, said in an interview the change in draft board attitudes toward conscientious objectors, or C-Os, "has been showing up only lately. Very lately we've been getting some cases that seem to indicate a growing hard line."

Arlo Tatum, 45, executive secretary of the Central Committee, told a reporter that "war psychology has made it more difficult" to get a C-O classification.

"The open hostility of the national director (Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey) toward dissent has had a real impact on local boards," said Tatum.

Conscientious objectors can apply for either of two classifications:

—I-O, meaning they refuse military induction entirely. Holders of I-O classifications can be required to spend two years in a civilian national service job, such as an orderly in a hospital or mental institution.

—I-A-O, meaning they accept induction but refuse to bear arms.

Selective Service said that as of Dec. 31, 11,041 men were classified I-O. An additional 6,387 were employed in national service jobs and another 6,830 had completed such work. The Pentagon said about 4,000 men in service hold I-A-O classifications.

Selective Service said it keeps no record of how many men have applied unsuccessfully for I-O or I-A-O exemptions.

Officials said there are 1.7 conscientious objectors per 1,000 draft registrants, the same as during the Korean War. During World War II the ratio was 1-to-1,000, but officials said that war was more "popular." Also in those years C-Os were sent to camps rather than given national service jobs.

Selective Service figures do not show how many C-O exemptions were granted in any one year but only how many such exemptions are in force at any given date.

The two counseling organizations claim they do not keep tabs on how many inquiries they receive or attempt to figure their "battling average" for winning C-O classifications.

The Central Committee budget of $30,000 in 1963 has quintupled to $150,000, supporting a staff of 19. It personally counseled 5,653 persons in 1967, triple the 1963 figure said Tatum. He said 3,000 cases are active.

Filing Fee Ruling Is Overturned

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court reversed today a Circuit Court decision in Searcy County under which most of the filing fee paid by an independent candidate in the 1966 general election was returned.

Circuit Court had declared unconstitutional the statute that provides that an independent candidate pay a filing fee equal to the greatest amount required by either political party for the office.

The Supreme Court did not rule on the constitutionality of the statute, "Act 68 of 1965," but refused to uphold Circuit Court's $1,497 judgment to Howard Stephenson.

Stephenson asked for the judgment after his defeat in a race for sheriff and collector.

The Democrats seeking the position paid a filing fee of $3 and the Republicans paid a fee of $1,500.

The high court noted that Stephenson failed to request a reimbursement until after he was defeated and that before paying his $1,500 fee he made no effort to determine whether the statute was valid or invalid.

The court said it was not disputed that his payment was entirely voluntary. It said he can't claim ignorance of the law as a reason why his money should be returned.

The validity of the act could have been determined before he paid the fee, the court said.

Justice Conley Byrd concurred in the opinion, but said he agreed with the trial court that the act was discriminatory and unconstitutional. Byrd said he believed the Supreme Court should have determined the constitutional issue, since it involved election laws.

Three Killed on Arkansas Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Three persons were killed on the Arkansas highways during the 54-hour weekend period which ended at midnight Sunday.

State Police identified the victims as Andrew Jackson, 32, and Alva Jackson, 68, both of Marshall, and Sammy Lee Richards, 20, of Coy (Lonoke County).

Authorities said the Jacksons were killed in a two-car crash Sunday about one mile north of Marshall on Arkansas 27. Officers said Andrew Jackson was the driver of a northbound vehicle which crossed the center line and collided with a vehicle driven by Roy F. Drewry, 56, of Marshall.

Richards was killed when the car in which he was riding left Arkansas 13 at a high rate of speed and struck a culvert about 1.2 miles north of Hummoke Saturday night. Authorities said the driver of the car, Charlie Farmer, 20, of England was hospitalized at Little Rock.

Those years C-Os were sent to camps rather than given national service jobs.

Kosygin, Thant Talk About Peace

By ANTHONY C. COLLINGS
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant talked about Vietnam with Soviet leaders today for the second day as Pravda trumpeted renewed and unmodified support for Hanoi's peace terms.

Thant met with Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and then with Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev. The secretary-general also talked with Kosygin Sunday soon after he arrived.

Thant was flying on to London tonight to see Prime Minister Harold Wilson, who has endorsed President Johnson's San Antonio formula of requirements for negotiations.

The Soviet and British governments are co-chairmen of the 1954 Geneva conference which ended the French war in Indochina and has often been suggested as a vehicle for peace again. But the Soviet Union has rejected all British proposals to reopen the conference, and there was no indication whether Thant had obtained any modification in this stand.

The secretary-general came to Moscow from India in his campaign to put a brake on deteriorating peace prospects as a result of the Communist offensive in Vietnam. He talked to the North Vietnamese consul in New Delhi.

Thant's London schedule called for a meeting Tuesday morning with Foreign Secretary George Brown and luncheon with Wilson before departing for New York.

Wilson said Sunday after a visit to Johnson that he supported President Johnson's San Antonio formula as the road to

Fires Over Nation Take 23 Lives

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Eighteen children in two families died Sunday in fires at Franklin, Pa., and Howich, Que., near Montreal. Four other persons, including at least one American, died in an Acapulco, Mexico, hotel fire that injured more than 20.

Counting two adults killed at Howich and Franklin, the three fires took 23 lives.

Eighteen Chinese were killed early today in a fire at Hong Kong that destroyed a tenement building. Scores of impoverished families were left homeless.

Ten children were killed in Pennsylvania as their mother, widowed just over two weeks ago, screamed for them to jump from the second floor of their flame-filled home.

The Red Cross identified one of the Acapulco dead as Robert Mayo Davis, 68, of Raleigh, N.C. Four of six persons admitted to a hospital were U.S. citizens. The beachfront Hotel Majestic fire started in a night club packed with winter vacationers and swept the lower floors. Many persons jumped from the hotel into the surf of Acapulco Bay, U.S. sailors put out boats to rescue them.

Korean President to Come to U.S. in Bid to Resolve Problems

By BOB POOS
Associated Press Writer
SEOUL (AP) — South Korean President Chung Hee Park is reported considering a trip to talk with President Johnson if U.S. presidential envoy Cyrus Vance doesn't resolve the U.S.-South Korean rift over Korean security.

Vance and Park met for the first time today. Vance's mission is to quiet South Korean fears that the United States is tending toward appeasement in the Pueblo incident and neglecting the increase in the infiltration of armed North Koreans into the South.

Johnson sent Park a personal letter last Thursday, and Vance was expected to deliver another such letter today. Informal Korean sources said Johnson may have invited Park to Washington and, depending on the results of his talks with Vance, Park may decide to go.

In a move welcome to the South Koreans, the American officers who head the U.N. Command in Korea asked for a meeting with North Korea to air claims of Communist truce violations "in and through the demilitarized zone."

North Korea rejected the command's proposal to meet today, but it was indicated that the Communists proposed meeting Wednesday and that this would be acceptable to the U.N. side.

A U.S. military spokesman said four North Koreans crossed into South Korea around midnight Sunday, but American sentries repelled them in a brief clash. No casualties were reported.

There was speculation that Vance would also meet with North Korean representatives before his scheduled departure Tuesday afternoon. The United States and North Korea have held five secret meetings since the Communists seized the U.S. intelligence-gathering ship Pueblo Jan. 23.

No official reports have come out of the talks, but reliable Korean sources said they believed three injured Pueblo crewmen and the body of one sailor who died would be returned soon.

The secret meetings lifted the South Koreans, traditionally strong allies of the United States, who are more concerned about the security threat raised by the Communist commando raid into Seoul Jan. 21 in an attempt to assassinate President Park.

The commandos failed, but a police chief was killed in a gun battle with them only 800 yards from the presidential mansion. Allied forces later killed 27 of the infiltrators and captured one.

South Korean officials also were expected to ask Vance for return of operational control of their 560,000-man armed forces, now held by American Gen. Charles H. Bonesteel III, the commander of U.N. forces in South Korea.

Mrs. Charles (Lillian) Briant has returned to St. Michael's Hospital in Texarkana and will undergo surgery this week.

The Senior Citizens Club, formerly known as the Golden Age Club, will have its Potluck dinner Thursday, February 15, at the Youth Center. Lunch is at 12 noon and everyone is urged to come.

Marines Move Into City of Hue

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Fresh U.S. Marines moved Sunday night into Hue's Citadel, where the enemy has held out nearly two weeks against South Vietnamese forces, and other Americans battled Communist holdouts near the Saigon race track.

The Marines, who already have recaptured the southern part of Hue, sent 400 men up the Perfume River in assault boats to attack the northwest flank of North Vietnamese forces in the old walled Citadel.

It was the first time American troops had entered the battle for the Citadel, scene of heavy fighting since the Communists attacked Hue Jan. 31 in the early stage of their giant offensive against 35 major cities and towns. South Vietnamese troops had pushed the enemy force into corners but had been unable to drive them out.

Addition of the 400 fresh men swelled the Leatherneck force in Hue to about 1,000 men. AP correspondent George McArthur reported from Hue that the Marines were meeting only occasional sniper fire in the southern part of the city 400 miles north of Saigon.

He said there were indications all North Vietnamese troops had withdrawn from the fighting for the south side, leaving only local guerrillas, including some who infiltrated among the 30,000 civilian refugees.

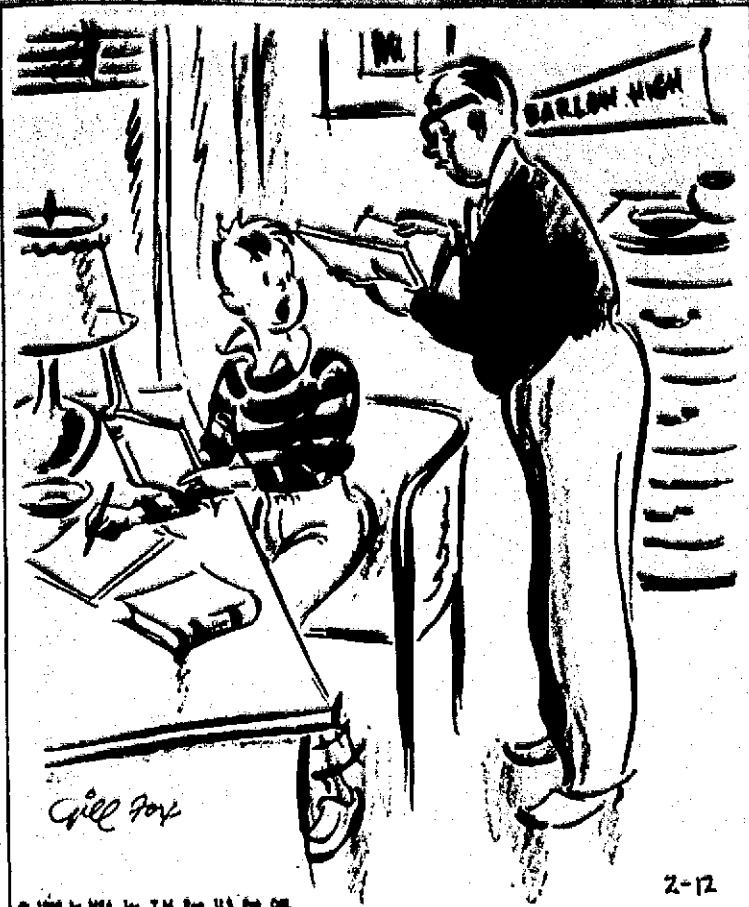

Lt. Col. Phan Van Khoa, province chief, mayor of Hue and district military commander, said Communist troops in Hue executed 300 civilians Friday and buried them in a mass grave, south of the city. He said the grave was in an area not yet reached by allied forces but that his reports of the executions were precise and unquestionable.

The victims were province officials, technicians, policemen and others who long had been marked for death by the Communists, he said.

A Vietnamese civilian reported 125 to 150 Catholics belonged from the city as captives Saturday.

Fighting also continued in Saigon and its suburbs for the 13th day, and communiques and field reports said U.S. and South Vietnamese infantrymen, helicopter gunships and fighter-bombers killed 223 Viet Cong in running battles around a government ammunition dump a mile northeast of Tan Son Nhut Air Base and near the Saigon race track on the city's western outskirts.

Third Party Candidates Haven't Won

By CARY P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — George C. Wallace's decision to run for president makes him the fifth major third-party candidate of the 20th Century. None has come close to winning.

But one, Theodore Roosevelt, ran a strong second in 1912 and had a lot to do with Woodrow Wilson's victory.

The others were less successful. Sen. Robert LaFollette Sr. won only his home state of Wisconsin in 1924. In 1948, States Rights party candidate Strom Thurmond and Progressive party nominee Henry A. Wallace failed to prevent President Harry S. Truman's re-election.

George Wallace declared in announcing his candidacy last week he thinks he can win.

The former Alabama governor noted that with three candidates in the race he could win a state's entire electoral vote with as little as 34 per cent of its popular vote.

While Wallace's estimate of his own political strength may be optimistic, his knowledge of history was accurate.

In 1912, Roosevelt failed to wrest the Republican nomination from President William H. Taft, his chosen successor four years earlier. He formed the Progressive party and ran against Taft and Wilson, the Democratic candidate.

Wilson carried 40 states with 435 electoral votes, to six with 88 votes for Roosevelt and two with eight votes for Taft.

But in 26 of those 40 states, Wilson polled less than half of the combined vote and was victorious solely because of the GOP split. These included such key states as New York, Illinois and Ohio.

Wilson's popular vote — 6,286,214 — was less than the combined total of 7,699,942 for the two Republicans. It was even less than the 6,409,106 polled in 1908 by Democrat William Jennings Bryan when he lost to Taft, who drew 7,679,006 and had an electoral majority of 321 to 162.

In 1924, LaFollette ran against Republican President Calvin Coolidge and Democrat John W. Davis. The senator polled 4,822,856 votes to 15,725,016 for Coolidge and 8,385,566 for Davis.

Of the 35 states Coolidge carried, he won 13 with less than 50 per cent of the vote, mostly small border and Western states. The ones he carried outright included all the big states.

Thurmond's 1948 candidacy stemmed from the Democratic National Convention's adoption of a strong civil-rights platform. The then-South Carolina governor captured control of the regular Democratic machinery and electoral votes of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and his home state.

In the same election, Henry Wallace polled 509,559 votes in New York, which Republican nominee Thomas E. Dewey carried by about 60,000 votes. But Truman won the election by carrying California by 17,000 votes and Ohio by 7,000 despite strong Wallace showings.

If Truman had lost those two states, the election would have been thrown into the House for the first time since 1824, since neither candidate would have had the required electoral majority.

In 1960, an effort by some Southern segregationists to force the election into the House failed. States-rights electors carried Alabama and Mississippi, but John F. Kennedy won enough states for an electoral majority.

Life in Arkansas

By TOMMY YATES

Associated Press Writer

Dr. Denver L. Prince, chairman of the Physics Department at State College of Arkán-sas, came up with a pretty good riddle recently.

Price asked: "What weighs

850 pounds, has 2,304 eyes and collects light?"

Obviously, not many things could fit a description like that,

but still no one could solve the riddle and Prince had to supply the answer.

The answer was: State College's new 16-inch telescope, which was installed atop the college's Science Building.

The instrument is believed to be the most powerful in the state.

For the benefit of the non-scientists, Prince explained his riddle.

He said the more light that a telescope picks up the more powerful it is. "Our scope is 16 inches in diameter and gathers as much light as 2,304 human eyes," he said.

The telescope will be used in classes and Prince said it would be made available for public viewing about once a week. The cost of the telescope and having it erected on the building was more than $20,000.

Two farmers were recently discussing rural life and the improbability of their ever being rich. A third person posed

this question to them:

"What would you do if you suddenly inherited a million dollars?"

"Well," said one of the two,

"I'd probably keep on farming until it was all gone."

Told About Health

ROCKY CUMMINS, MIKE VOSS, MRS. TURNER

MRS. INEZ TURNER

The Arkansas State Health Department was established in 1913, the Hope Rotary Club learned last Friday when Mrs. Ray Turner, Hempstead County Health Nurse, spoke after the weekly luncheon at the Town and Country. The speaker explained the functions of a Public Health Nurse and the history and objections of the State Health Department.

"Our services are based on human need," she said, "and given with respect for human dignity." She distributed charts showing the plan of organization of the Health Department and the duties of the Public Health Nurse. "Prevention of disease is the first aim of the Public Health Service," Mrs. Turner stressed, "and Home Health Services were established for the first time in 1967."

George Walden arranged for the program and introduced the speaker. President Clyde Fouse urged all to attend the Ladies Night function on February 14 at 7 p.m. at the Town and Country, and he welcomed 4 guests, Grady Cathey of Blevins, Lyndell Ballenger of Springdale, and Hope High students Rocky Cummings and Mike Voss.

Presidents James Buchanan and Grover Cleveland were bachelors at the time of their respective elections.

New York Garbage Is Collected

By AL SCHAY

Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Men are busy today collecting tons of garbage rotting on New York City's streets. That's about all Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Mayor John V. Lindsay agree on.

Differences between the two nationally prominent Republicans escalated over the weekend, spurred by Rockefeller's action Saturday night to end the city's 9-day, illegal strike by the Unemployed Sanitationmen's Association.

Rockefeller, in an unprecedented move, placed the city's 10,000 sanitationmen under state control and put them back on the streets. By then, garbage had a 10-to-1 edge on the collectors—10 tons for each man.

Lindsay, already fuming because Rockefeller balked at the mayor's request for a National Guard call-up, exploded at the state takeover, calling it unsound and a threat to every city in the nation.

The plan, Lindsay said, was a "direct and dangerous threat to home rule." He said it was "clear that the governor and I have a disagreement about how you run a government."

Rockefeller's plan, which gave the union a settlement Lindsay termed "blackmail," would put the city's Sanitation Department under state control during a temporary health emergency.

It still left the union without a contract.

Rockefeller was to ask the state legislature today to drop its regular business and pass the special legislation.

On Sunday night the governor announced that he would ask for a 3-day delay in the effective date of the legislation, "to give the mayor an opportunity to work out a settlement with the sanitation union."

Lindsay didn't comment on the proposed delay, but an aide called it unrealistic. "How can you bargain with the union," the Lindsay aide said, "when they know that just by waiting three days they can get the maximum amount promised them by the governor?"

A hint about public sentiment on the Lindsay-Rockefeller confrontation came Sunday night when the handsome congressman-turned-mayor got a standing ovation at the formal opening of the new Madison Square Garden.

Aides to the mayor said telegrams to Lindsay ran 778-15 in his favor, and calls to the Mayor's Action Center backed his stand 3,249-62. Rockefeller aides said a wave of unfavorable messages to the governor turned in his favor after he got the garbage collectors back on the street, but they said they had no specific figures.

More than 5,000 sanitation men worked Sunday in temperatures mostly in the teens. The war on garbage was slowed on scores of streets where firemen had put out trash blazes and left an icy mass of trash.

Rockefeller's settlement gave the sanitationmen a $425-a-year raise, retroactive to last July 1, when their old contract expired. The old wage rates went from $6,424 a year for beginners to $7,956 after three years.

Echo 1, the Best Seems Near Death

By VERN HAUGLAND
AP Aviation Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Echo 1, the U.S. satellite that long has ranked as the brightest and most easily observed spacecraft orbiting the earth, appears to be about to die.

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset
1980—may drop back to earth any time.
A Goddard spokesman said the North American Defense Command has forecast, on the basis of computer studies of the satellite's recent orbits, that it may fall into the earth's atmosphere about March 31.

On most spacecraft these effects are negligible, but Echo's light weight and great mass make it susceptible to the slight pressures.
Fashioned of mylar polyester coated with aluminum, the huge space ball, tall as a 10-story building, glowed like a headlight at night, sparkling in the sun shine that bathed its course.

Hundreds of newspapers printed the orbital schedules daily until interest waned with the advent of more satellites that could be seen—though not so brightly—with the naked eye.
Originally the spacecraft was estimated to have a lifetime of perhaps a year. In 1961 the Smithsonian Institution's Astrophysical Laboratory estimated Echo I would be destroyed either in April 1962, July 1963, or May 1964.

Pays Visit to Gibraltar
CADIZ, Spain (AP) — The commander of the U.S. 6th Fleet paid his first formal visit to the U.S. Spanish Naval Base at Gibraltar since the Spanish complained about a visit by ships of the fleet to Gibraltar.

Monday, February 12, 1968 tress rock away from Britain, and after 6th Fleet ships visited there last month, the Foreign Ministry told the U.S. Embassy such visits must stop. The ministry said that if they didn't, Spain's Mediterranean ports might be closed to the 6th Fleet.

Byrd to Help Pay Tribute to Lincoln

By SID HURLBURT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — At least one Southern Democrat in the Senate will join Republicans today in honoring the birthday anniversary of Abraham Lincoln, GOP patron saint and Civil War president.

"I'm a great admirer of Lincoln," he said. "When I see one like this in a stationery store, I buy it."
One of Byrd's hobbies is history, and much of his reading has been concerned with Lincoln and his time, the senator said.
"What was perhaps our most tragic era—tragic because of this war which was a fight within the family, so to speak—produced two of the greatest leaders we have had: Lincoln and Robert E. Lee."
